Data Alignment
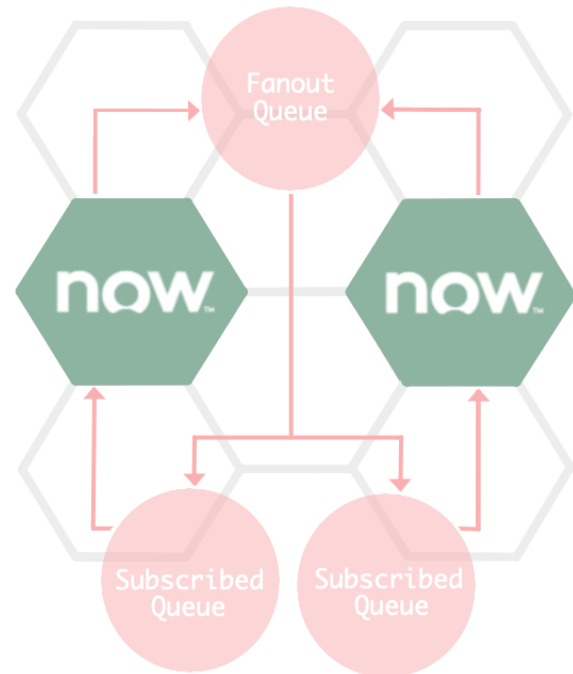

Data Alignment provides conflict avoidance to minimize the possibility of records becoming out of sync. For example, Instance A updates a record at the same time Instance B updates the same record. We now have the risk of conflicting records. With Data Alignment (using dynamic share), we can minimize that risk by receiving every changes and reflect datas at the same time.

To get started with Data Alignment, use the following features in your dynamic share:

Post immediately

Skip delayed updates

Similar topics

- View dynamic share domain and scope
- Use audit delete listener
- Data Alignment
- Share embedded images or videos
- Referenced field records

Contact Perspectium Support

US: 1 888 620 8880

UK: 44 208 068 5953

support@perspectium.com